

- a) exchange experiences on teaching methods;*
- b) exchange staff members for the purpose of lectures, seminars, conferences, symposia;*
- c) carry out joint research programs by students;*
- d) exchange students to take up M.Sc., Ph.D. studies;*

Research centres may set up other themes or activities in accordance with what agreed upon.

Article 3

The host University shall place to the disposal of professors and researchers material and structures necessary for carrying out the activities provided by the present agreement.

Article 4

In order to enabling the carrying out of the projects stipulated in this agreement, both universities shall find and obtain financial support from international or national institutions, or other entities, be it public or private. To this end, these financial aids may be used for limited or renewable projects which should remain as such.

Article 5

The present agreement shall come into force on the date of its signature by both legal representatives of each university. It shall be valid for 3 (three) years and then be renewed upon agreement between the two Institutions.

Article 6

Each party may recede from the present agreement by making a written request at least 6 (six) months before maturity. Each party shall receive one copy of such communication.

Article 7

In the future, and in accordance with what agreed upon, each party may co-operate with other institutions, with the agreement of all partners involved in the programme.

In this case, and each time that necessary, the parties shall draw up an additional clause in which shall be stipulated the name of the institution joining the others listed in the introduction and stated in Art. 2 of the present